Change More Families' Lives

Michael Hawton's 35 years in practice point to a parenting culture that's treating kids as fragile, over-pathologising normal struggle, and making unhelpful accommodations that leave children no more resilient.
From October 2026, Thriving Kids begins rolling out across Australia.

If you work with families under pressure, you know the gap between what parents need and what they're actually getting. This Roadshow closes that gap, giving practitioners in Melbourne, Sydney and Brisbane evidence-based tools you can use with your very next client.

We want to help you equip parents as confident trainers and mentors who combine warmth with structure so kids build real resilience, through courses you can run with parent groups or one on one. These programs are ready to deliver, backed by research, and straightforward to facilitate.

The Three Roadshow Courses

Parentshop
lifelong behaviour change

Each course is ready to deliver, backed by research, and straightforward to facilitate.

1-2-3 Magic & Emotion Coaching

This course shows parents ways they can resolve family conflict and stop feeling guilty when setting boundaries in everyday moments. This masthead, evidence-based course has undergone four university studies and is built on an early intervention model, giving parents practical communication strategies that cut through conflict and rebuild cooperation at home — without the yelling and nagging.

ROADSHOW BONUS

- A 3-hour recorded supplement adapting 1-2-3 Magic and Emotion Coaching for children with ADHD or Autism, giving parents the extra support around additional needs.
- A 1-2-3 Magic Emotion Coaching Magazine, a summarised companion to the renowned Talk. Less Listen More book, created specifically for this Roadshow.

Anxiety Coach™

Anxiety Coach™ is grounded in contemporary research on childhood anxiety and draws extensively on principles from cognitive behavioural therapy (CBT), widely recognised as the gold-standard, evidence-based approach for the prevention and treatment of anxiety in children.

ROADSHOW BONUS

- A free copy of Michael Hawton's The Anxiety Coach book.
- The Presentation Book by Emma Ledden.

Engaging Adolescents™

Engaging Adolescents™ is a structured professional learning program that equips practitioners with evidence-informed strategies to support adolescents in regulating behaviour and emotional responses. Built on Michael Hawton's Engaging Adolescents, this course equips you to help parents and carers manage difficult behaviour with calm, structured techniques that actually stick for older children and teens alike.

ROADSHOW BONUS

- A free copy of Michael Hawton's Engaging Adolescents book.
- The Presentation Book by Emma Ledden.

Each Course Includes

- 12 months' certification to deliver the course
- Full training manual
- PowerPoint presentation
- Session-by-session facilitator guidelines
- Program videos
- Marketing collateral to promote your courses
- Parent certificate of completion template
- Parent feedback form
- Order form for parent workbooks
